Still Battling On Amendments To Foreign Aid Bill

Hear Talk Of Squeezing Security And Recovery Cost In One Program

COST OF ARMING EUROPE PROBLEM
By WILLIAM THEIS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 8.—Tax-conscious Senators, ready to wind up debate on the Foreign Aid bill, talked more today about squeezing security and European recovery costs into an "economy-size" program.

Acting Majority Leader Myers (D) Pa., said the Senate will remain in session until late tonight, if necessary, to clear away a handful of amendments still pending against the five and one-half billion dollar aid bill.

But there is still plenty of talk and ill-feeling from the two and a half weeks of debate and political bickering on the measure. Sen. Morse (R) Oregon, recalling his tiff with Majority Leader Lucas (D), Ill., refused to consent to an agreement to begin voting on the amendments at two p. m. today.

Cost Is Discussed
Cost of arming western Europe, on top of the Marshall Plan and the $15,000,000,000 defense budget, was the principal subject of discussion.

GOP Floor Leader Wherry (R), Neb., said he'd like to see the appropriations committee present all three—E.C.A. Atlantic Pact implementation and defense budget appropriations—in "one package."

Sen. Taft (R), Ohio, GOP policy chairman, said he wants "to reduce the whole thing."

And Sen. Millikin (R), Col., Republican finance leader, said he wants the cost of arming Europe charged off against the Marshall Plan authorization.

Seek to Avoid Deficit
All three are primarily interested in avoiding a treasury deficit that would give support to President Truman's recommendation for a $4,000,000,000 tax increase.

Their discussion grew out of the a' rent difference between Mr. Truman and his chief economic adviser, Dr. Edward G. Nourse. The President said Nourse had been misinterpreted in accounts (Continued on Page Two)

BODY FOUND IN RIVER
PITTSBURGH, April 8.—(INS)—William H. (Kiddo) Martin, 34, told companions in a neighborhood tavern he was going to jump off a bridge.

His friends thought he was joking, and one of them gave him 25 cents "for carfare to a bridge."

That was five weeks ago. He hadn't been seen since.

Yesterday Martin's body was pulled from the Ohio river.

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 8.—The United Nations general assembly has been convened for tomorrow to approve for inclusion on its agenda a review of the imprisonment of Cardinal Mindszenty and other church leaders, Indonesia and Israel's U. N. application.

The 15-nation "steering" committee recommended the addition to the agenda of the Balkan church leaders' trials in a two-day session marked by furious Russian and Polish opposition.

The "steering" committee will today examine the question of recommending Indonesia for the agenda and of opening its ranks to Israel as its 59th member.

On Indonesia, the committee is certain to approve the item despite the probable objection by France and Belgium on behalf of The (Continued on Page Two)

Hospital Fire Toll Is Set At 74

EFFINGHAM, Ill., April 8.—(INS)—Firemen resumed digging today for the last three bodies of the 74 persons who died in the tragic St. Anthony's hospital fire at Effingham.

The official death toll was set by Msgr. J. L. Gatto, hospital superintendent for the Springfield, Ill., diocese. The fire was the second and worst hospital disaster in the nation's history.

Investigators said the cause of the inferno, which trapped babies in the nursery and patients in the three-story building early Tuesday, still has not been determined and may never be known.

Funeral services for many of the victims were held yesterday and there were more burial rites today. A citizens' committee started its second day of raising funds for a new $2,500,000 hospital.

The maintenance crews will continue their work on the highway until repairs have been completed.

Western Allies In Agreement On German Control

"Big Three" Reach Agreement At Conference In Washington Today

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
WASHINGTON, April 8.—The foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France reached agreement today on future control and economic development of Western Germany.

Secretary of State Acheson, Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain and Foreign Minister Schuman of France held their final conference on Germany and announced that a formal communiqué on the agreement would be issued later in the day.

Bevin Is Leaving
Bevin boarded an 11 a. m. train for New York and is due to sail for England this afternoon aboard the Cunard liner Mauretania.

The joint "Big Three" statement is expected to declare that the Western Allies have decided on unification of their occupation zones in Germany and the powers to be given to the proposed civilian government.

They reportedly are in accord also on granting Western Germany representation on the organization for European economic cooperation which administers Marshall Aid funds in Europe.

Full details of the plan will remain to be worked out and will not be published until later.

It was understood that the agreement which will determine the status of the central government of the western occupation zones was reached last night.

But both Bevin and Schuman had dinner dates after having met socially with President Truman at his Blair house residence and put off until this morning a statement of their final agreement.

HARRISBURG, April 8.—(INS)—The pay of Pennsylvania jurors will be raised from $4 to $5 a day starting January 1, 1950, under the provisions of a bill signed today by Gov. James H. Duff.

The six cents a mile allowed for travel for jurors summoned to county seats for duty was not changed in the bill co-sponsored by Democrat Sens. John J. Haluska, of Cambria; William J. Lane, of Washington; and Burton Tarr, of Fayette.

Other bills signed today by the governor provided for validation of certain sales by school districts not provided for by law; clarification of provisions of the state police fire law; consent of the voters in political sub-divisions faced with annexations by Philadelphia; elimination of the 30-year rule which guided the state highways department when vacating roads; repeal of an act of 1933 requiring county commissioners to file reports of tax money distribution for unemployment compensation with the now defunct state emergency relief board; the repeal of an obsolete law governing treatment of county jail prisoners; elimination of a section of an act of 1905 requiring third class city councils and borough and township auditors to be fence viewers.

Last night, the governor approved a bill assuring free hunting licenses to veterans who have lost one or both arms or legs.

Austrian Peace Treaty Parley Progress Slow
LONDON, April 8.—(INS)—Deputies of the Big Four discussing the Austrian peace treaty adjourned today until April 26 to permit consultations with home governments.

U. S. Deputy Samuel Reber suggested the adjournment yesterday.

The deputies have sat through 41 meetings without reaching agreement on any points regarding a permanent Austrian settlement.

The four powers—the U. S., Britain, France and Russia—are expected to devote the two-week period largely to a study of a memorandum prepared by Reber, concerning the disposal of German assets in Austria.

Must Conserve U. S. Resources

President Stresses Super-Importance Of Conserving Natural Resources

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(INS)—President Truman declared today that never before in history has it been more important for the United States to develop and conserve its natural resources.

Mr. Truman's remarks were made in a brief message read to the 39th annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors congress by Sen. McClellan (D) Ark., president of the organization.

The chief executive again emphasized that the strongest possible economy is necessary to preserve world peace. He said the rivers and harbors congress is engaged in work "which must be done to keep our national potential operating at its highest degree of efficiency."

Mr. Truman declared: "At no time in our history has it ever been more important for the United States to develop and conserve its natural resources."

"The entire democratic world has rallied to our leadership in its quest for a durable peace in the years which have followed World War II. Despite the fact that we have not sought this position of leadership, we must face this responsibility squarely and carry it through."

"To achieve the task which history has laid upon our shoulders we must make certain that our own economy is as strong and as healthy as we can make it."

Eight Treaty Powers Ask U.S. Military Aid

Requests Come Almost Immediately After Signing Atlantic Pact

MAY COST NATION UP TO TWO BILLION
By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The State Department revealed today that the day after the Atlantic Pact was signed eight treaty powers asked the United States for immediate military aid which may cost the nation up to two billion dollars.

This became known when the State department released an exchange of notes between the United States and the eight European governments.

The notes disclose that the Truman administration will recommend to Congress a military equipment program for the Atlantic alliance powers plus dollar aid to stimulate arms production in the European nations.

Nations Making Pleas
The pleas for military assistance came from the Brussels pact powers—Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—as well as Italy, Denmark and Norway.

Publication of the notes revealed that preliminary estimates already have been given the United States on the probable extent of the military and financial aid they will need for a common defense program during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950.

Reports have indicated that the bill to the American taxpayer will be between one billion, 500 million dollars and two billion dollars.

The notes were received at the State department last Tuesday, the day after the United States and 11 other North Atlantic powers signed their mutual assistance treaty. The United States reply, calling for early estimates from the European countries, was forwarded to them on Wednesday.

Not 'Price Tag On Pact'
Simultaneously with publication of the documents, Secretary of State Dean Acheson emphasized that "these requests and our replies in no sense represent a price tag to be placed upon the pact."

Acheson said that the exchange formalizes the talks held earlier regarding the nature and amount of military assistance and that the aid program is being formulated on the basis of information as to "the urgent military needs of certain of the Western European nations."

The secretary added: "The requests for military aid (Continued on Page Two)

MISS HELEN MAXWELL IS "WOMAN OF YEAR"

Rock State Teachers College as a training teacher, and has taught at summer school in both Slippery Rock and Geneva Colleges.

Active Outside Classroom
Teaching school in itself is a full time job, but Miss Maxwell has been active outside the classroom. She was president of the local P.S.E.A. for two terms and served as a member of the State Council of the P.S.E.A. She was elected as the first teacher from Pennsylvania to serve as second national director of the N.E.A. Only one other teacher from Pennsylvania has ever received this honor. She was a member of the P.T.A. for a number of years and served as treasurer of that group at the West Side school.

Miss Maxwell is a member of the First Presbyterian church and of the A.B.D. Missionary society. She is a member of the College Club and of the Pi Lambda Theta Sorority.

Miss Maxwell is one of the most beloved teachers in the school system. Her personality and character have done much to make her so. She has done much to mold the character of the children of this community.

Her contribution of starting children in the right way of life has been enough to warrant her the honor accorded today without any of her other achievements. She has given unstintingly of her time and talent to make New Castle a better community through educating the children who will run the city in the years to come.

A tea and reception will be held in honor of Miss Maxwell Wednesday, April 20, in the East Dining Room of the Cathedral.

BRANNAN'S NEW FARM PROGRAM IS GIVEN VARIED RECEPTION

lation of the plan into law would bring agriculture prices "down in a heap."

GOP Senate Leader Wherry, Neb., commented:

"I'm for the objective, but not for the approach."

Cooley, who said he was favorably impressed with the plan, lauded the effort to get away from the old concept of parity. He said the present price support system leaves the psychological impression on the public that farmers are getting rich at public expense.

Brannan told an initial joint session of the Senate and House committees that his plan will be "considerably less expensive" than the one now in effect. But he added that he is not prepared at this time to back up the statement with specific figures.

Declines Estimate
President Truman declined to estimate its costs when he endorsed the program at his news conference.

Aiken estimated it will cost from two to five billions a year.

Another legislator forecast that proposed subsidy payments will mean outlays of from one and one-half to two billion dollars a year for milk price support alone.

Two of the large farm organizations went down the line with Brannan.

The National Grange said the policies he laid down largely are in "accord with many of the grange's recommendations for a sound farm program."

The National Farmers Union declared that the secretary displayed "statesmanship" in presenting income and parity proposals that "mark a milestone in the history of American agriculture."

To Approve Israel
The approval of Israel's membership application for the agenda is a foregone conclusion, despite the anticipated last-ditch objection by the Arab states and the abstention of some other states, such as Britain.

Once the necessary two-thirds vote has been achieved in the assembly, the 59th flag will go up on the pole already in place in ring at Flushing Meadows and at Lake Success. There are reports here that Dr. Chaim Weizmann as president of Israel will personally take the rostrum to deliver an acceptance speech of some significance.

The political committee has adjourned debate on the former Italian colonies to Monday in order to give the security council a clear deck this afternoon for consideration of Korea's application for U. N. membership.

Another application on the list for discussion is that of Nepal.

stance now formalized by this exchange of notes are predicated upon an urgent need for improvement in the defensive capabilities of the countries requiring such assistance, thereby discouraging aggression against them," Acheson said.

"The military assistance program, like the Atlantic pact, is part of a policy which is entirely defensive in its scope."

"It is important to note, however, that the requests are not a product of the pact—an instrument which is not yet in effect."

"Thus, even without the existence of the North Atlantic Pact, the need for assistance and recommended response of this government would be the same."

The aid program, he added, will become a powerful factor in assuring success of the pact.

Duff Okays Bill To Make Study Of Public Assistance

Declares State's Public Assistance
Expenditures Are At A Terrific Rate

HARRISBURG, April 8.—(INS)—Legislation to investigate the State's Administration of Public Assistance today received endorsement of Gov. James H. Duff.

"I am definitely interested in a complete study of the whole situation," he declared.

"The State's Public assistance expenditures are at a terrific rate," he said.

"I think the State of Pennsylvania made a tremendous mistake by paying the entire cost of these expenditures at the state level," he said.

"In my opinion this method resulted in spending more on public assistance than would have been spent if local communities would have shared part of the costs," the governor stated.

He said the state's method was "bad" because it has taken away "all interests for these payments from local communities."

However, it was understood, precise details remain to be decided.

Another three-power conference was scheduled to begin at 3 p. m. EST at the State department.

There was no indication on when there might be an announcement of the precise terms of the accord.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A friend of financier Bernard Baruch spoke so often about his love for hunting that Baruch finally invited him to his South Carolina plantation for a turkey shoot. The friend tramped the field for two days, shooting madly, but failed to hit a single turkey.

Mr. Baruch made no comment. The next morning, however, the friend was ambling along a path near the playhouse when he saw a well-fed gobbler sitting motionless in a tree. He crept up close to the turkey and fired pointblank. He was overjoyed when the turkey fell at his feet. It was only when he picked it up to stuff into his bag that he noticed a card tied around the turkey's neck. The card read, "With the compliments of Bernard Baruch."

Milton Spierling tells about a tough little lad in the gashouse district who poured a pan of water on a passerby, and shouted a number of interesting four-letter words at him. The infuriated passerby yelled up, "Come down here and I will beat the tar out of you." "Come down," repeated the offending brat. "Are you crazy? I can't even walk yet."

WATER INCREASE IS FAIR

In a petition to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, the City of New Castle Water Company has asked for an increase of fifteen per cent in its water rates. The increase is asked only for homes and industrial use, not for water supplied to the fire hydrants for fire protection.

Ordinarily when a utility asks for an increase in rates the request is looked upon rather critically by the citizenry. In the case of the water company there seems to be no criticism of the request, the general opinion being that the rising cost of operation merits an increase.

The present rates for water in New Castle were set in 1924. Since then costs of operation have increased enormously. Labor rates have risen, material costs have risen and the company now finds itself at a point where it must get more revenues if it expects to survive and serve efficiently.

There has been little complaint of the water service in this city over the years. The rates have been much lower than most of the other cities in Pennsylvania, the service has been rendered efficiently and courteously. The personnel of the water company has joined in community activities with the same degree of civic service as have those of locally owned enterprises.

The request for a fifteen percent increase seems to us to be fair and just. It should be granted. Not that any of us want to pay more for services but all of us realize that the increased costs have touched utilities just as they have touched the rest of us.

SIGN OF SPRING

The one infallible sign of spring has nothing to do with the calendar. It is not found in the bursting of blooms, the migrations of the birds. The vernal equinox may come and go without leaving the assurance that winter is gone and better days are ahead.

All of this is lost on the sports fan, who knows spring is here as he reads the rival claims of baseball managers, all of whom—to hear them tell it—have a cinch on the pennant in their respective leagues. He is further assured it is spring when sports pages carry the information that all the great stars are in better condition than ever before, that aging arms and legs are still in tiptop form.

It is during these days the real baseball fan comes out of his hibernation and joins the millions of others awaiting the call "play ball." Quickly he picks his favorite team in the league of his choice, and through some strange system of mathematics, based upon fielding and batting averages, awards it the pennant before the first game is played.

Not only are these signs of spring, but, more important, they indicate the enduring substance of the American way of life, and the sturdy character of the people. Domestic and world crises are taken in their stride by the millions of citizens who know it is spring because baseball is here.

NEW JOB FOR NIMITZ

As he sat in the war room of the Cincpac headquarters at Guam early in 1945, Admiral Chester Nimitz probably did not dream that four years later he would be refereeing a plebiscite on the hot western plains of India. At the time the admiral was more concerned with the disposition of his wandering task forces and his Marine assault units.

Last January 6 the UN Kashmir Commission endorsed the plan for a plebiscite to be held in the Indian states of Jammu and Kashmir this spring. Included was a proviso that the voting should be carried out under the eye of an administrator who was to be a "personality of high international standing."

Secretary General Trygve Lie of the UN chose the white-thatched Texan who originated the island hopping tactics that helped win the war in the Pacific, and who retired in 1947 after 46 years of naval service.

The job the admiral has accepted is no sinecure. It will be his task to see that two traditional foes go to the polls in an exercise of a democratic principle that is entirely alien to them. He will be in a territory where evidences of civil war and violent death may still be seen.

When the election has been held, he will report formally to the UN as to whether the Hindu-Moslem population of Jammu-Kashmir prefer to become a part of India or of Pakistan.

The admiral has refereed slugfests before, both on shipboard and in his headquarters at Pearl Harbor and Guam. He has a glacial eye and a prominent chin. There is no doubt that he will make his decisions stick just as he did when he had 70,000,000 square miles of Pacific Ocean to worry about.

A Cincinnati minister refuses to pay part of his income tax because, he says, he doesn't want to do anything to encourage war. This is a good alibi if you can make it stick.

When the New Deal gets into full bloom and takes over all private enterprises, who is going to pay the taxes to buy the oil to keep the machine going?

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

A drastic step in an obvious attempt to strengthen the intellectual and moral fibre of Western Germany and thus bolster democracy's front line in Europe's cold war has been taken by the three western powers in Berlin.

Behind a brief announcement granting wide amnesties and watering down stern denazification policies lies an apparent conviction on the part of Allied Military authorities that many Germans can be put to far better use than at the present.

It is an inferential admission that denazification as first planned has proved in many respects to be a failure.

It is also a bid to the people of Western Germany to take on a new life and hope with absolute freedom for past misdeeds.

The decree drafted by U. S. Military Governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay and his British and French counterparts in Berlin exempts all persons under 30 and over 65 from denazification penalties.

Liberated Classifications
More specifically, the "liberated" classifications are as follows:
1—All who joined the Nazi party after May 1, 1937.

2—Members of Hitler youth organizations except officers.

3—Non-commissioned army men involuntarily transferred to the Brownshirt SS and not promoted.

4—Former students in political institutes and Hitler schools.

5—German army career officers below the rank of colonel.

6—Members of various cultural student organizations, Red Cross personnel and high officials of industrial, commercial, financial and agricultural organizations.

Significantly, these major exemptions were announced at a time when there are signs of increasing nationalism in various parts of Germany. Military occupation authorities obviously are convinced, however, that such manifestations are more or less normal in the present troubled state of the world and in any case can be kept rigidly under control.

Much Criticism
Since the time the four victorious Allies divided Germany there has been much criticism of denazification procedure in the west which in many cases differed disadvantageously with that of the Russians in the East.

The Soviets had no compunction about executing high-ranking Nazis and imprisoning thousands of others. But there are undeniable indications that they screened on a different system from that of the west—doing away with those who were guilty and valueless and retaining those who may have sinned but still had much to contribute.

By this means, the Soviets frequently obtained the free and willing services of gifted doctors and surgeons, scientists, industrialists, intellectuals and the like while in the western zone this upper crust often was condemned to suspicion or imprisonment.

Recognition Of Fact
The new policy is a recognition of the fact that in building his Third Reich, Adolf Hitler may have created an immoral and aggressive one but nevertheless an immensely powerful one that drained off the cream of the nation's brains and ability.

It is also an official admission that many thousands of persons were Nazis out of necessity rather than desire.

An early theory that anyone opposing Nazism should have attempted to leave the country or martyred himself appears to have been abandoned. The passage of time and examination of documents and dossiers have proved that the Nazi Reich actually was a hermetically sealed entity in which citizens obeyed the Hitler laws or took the penalty.

An important factor in this reversal of policy is that it has taken place with the full consent of France, the most vigorous opponent of anything that might revive German militarism.

Now backed by the Atlantic pact and the huge resources at its disposal, the French apparently now have reached the conclusion that a strong and forward-thinking Germany can help greatly as a heretofore against expanding communism from the east.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD WHO IS A DAWDLER

On the last two days we considered the child in his early years at school, who dawdles with crayon or pencil. We urged that, instead of hounding him to hurry we should look for the cause and try to correct them. Let us, today, look into some of the causes which may have begun before he started to school, some lingering still, perhaps, dawdling over dressing, eating or other routine matters.

Often, though not always, the child who in the kindergarten, first, second or third grade dawdles when his whole class are supposed to color, draw, print or write, dawdles at home from the time he gets up till he leaves for school. Some of these dawdlers are often late to school, even in the high school. Some mothers tell me that after they have pushed out a boy or girl six, nine or twelve on a school morning they must lie down for an hour or so. I always wonder about the child, poor kid. He has no bed or cot on which to lie down for like recuperation.

Cultivate Dawdling
Though some children are constitutionally slow in movements, dawdlers are not born. They are made; and unaware, their parents who conscientiously try so hard to prevent this dawdling really cultivate it.

As a rule, that mother is most successful at cultivating self-reliance in the child who lets him do everything for himself as early as possible, even though it takes more of her time than to do it herself; who moreover, does not suddenly quit doing for him. She aims at cultivating self-reliance in him gradually. She helps him just enough but not too much—an artistic achievement. But she is careful not to stir up resistance in him.

Helps Older Child
In case there is a younger child, she employs skill artistically at giving the older child some help now and then, even when he could well help himself. She praises him generously for his self-reliance. She and Dad find time to show this older child abundant expressions of affection. They build him up as their "big boy" or "big girl."

Dawdling may develop very early over eating. As you can see, the mother who can so manage herself as to cultivate in the youngster from his early years a good healthy appetite has removed a big possible contributor to other dawdling problems, especially to those so familiar on school mornings, and even dawdling over pencil, paper and books at school. I wish young mothers would study carefully my bulletin, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction," to be had in a stamped envelope, by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.

School Mornings
Suppose you have a son or daughter eight, ten or twelve, and you have an awful scene every school morning getting him off to school on time. If you could make yourself ignore the matter entirely, showing no emotions, feeling none, he might solve the problem himself, especially if the school was hard on him for tardiness.

But most parents are sure they must do something and get results quickly. For some of them I propose the following plan: Announce to the child that you and Dad will never again say "hurry," and that he can collect a nickel every time he catches you at it. Ascertaining the time when he must leave for school to be on time, tell him that when he is five minutes later than the time he will not go to school that day, but will sit doing nothing in a chair without any amusement, where you can see him, while school is in session, with ten minutes recess at the end of each fifty minutes. Continue treatment daily till he is cured. Of the numerous cases I have known to be cured, none took even a second day.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

"Little Red Riding-Hood walked in."
"Draw up a chair," said the wolf, "and tell me what you have in your basket."

"Little Red Riding-Hood got a chair and sat down by the side of the bed."

"I have brought you something nice, to eat, granny," she said, as she bent over the bed. "But what great ears you have, grandmamma!"
"All the better to hear you with," said the wolf.

"What great eyes you have, grandmamma!"
"All the better to see you with,"
"And, oh, what great teeth you have, grandmamma!"
"All the better to eat you with!" cried the wolf, jumping out of bed.

You all know the rest of the story of Little Red Riding-Hood, who would surely have perished if it hadn't been for the nice woodcutter with his gun who happened to pass by at just the right moment.

I thought of that old fairy tale last night when a friend complained that his hearing isn't what it used to be and that he was getting a bit worried about it.

He isn't deaf, but his left ear is pretty bad and some of the high notes escape him completely. He can still enjoy music, however. He can hear his wife calling him to dinner. He can hear the barking of his dog and the singing of the birds, except the very high peeps and chirps.

"But it's in conversation that I miss out quite often," he said. "Unless people talk pretty loud, or I sit quite close to them, I am apt to lose a good part of the conversation."
"Well, I don't know," I interjected. "You may lose a good part of the conversation. But you also lose much of the bad part of the conversation."

"Most of us talk too much, and so we have to listen to too much." (Continued on Page Six)

The Ventriloquist

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Change In Political Climate

WASHINGTON, April 8.—When newspaper pressmen walked out and forced the suspension of all Washington newspapers, they added one more small coal to the fire of resentment burning brightly on Capitol Hill. An addition was scarcely necessary since the bonfire was already of impressive proportions.

No one could possibly have guessed on Nov. 3 that the present situation would exist with a House and Senate heavily Democratic and with a Democrat in the White House pledged specifically to repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor act. If the Congress were to act today on Labor legislation, the strong likelihood is that the Taft-Hartley restrictions would be tightened rather than relaxed.

That is a measure of the change in the political climate that has taken place. Whether the Taft-Hartley act will come up at all in this session is an open question.

Senate Bogged Down
The Senate seems hopelessly bogged down. After European aid is extended—if it is ever extended—the Senate must consider the reciprocal trade agreement act. Important appropriations bills are next in line. After that, so the talk goes, housing will be taken up. Consideration of the North Atlantic pact cannot be postponed indefinitely without harming the position of the United States before the world. Debate on the pact is certain to be lengthy.

While it is as yet hardly more than a gleam in Senator Wherry's eye, a proposal is under consideration to force an adjournment in June. This would leave not merely Taft-Hartley but a whole lot of other Truman pledges unfulfilled.

Might Tour Country
The President would then devote a part of the summer to touring the country. In the same rough-and-ready fashion he would tell the people why Congress had failed to pass his program.

Such a tour, with Congress in adjournment, would be practical. The President's implied threat to "go to the country" while Congress was in session was little more than a threat.

The arbitrary behavior of such Labor leaders as John L. Lewis produces arbitrary and irrational anger in Congress. No one is more aware of this irrationality than Sen. Irving Ives of New York. Senator Ives still hopes to see passed what he considers a "reasonable" Labor law. He is working closely with Sen. Robert A. Taft in hopes of a compromise that virtually all Republicans and enough Democrats will accept.

To Halt Strike
Senator Taft tends to favor keeping some sort of right of injunction which would enable the government to halt by court order strikes considered threatening to the national welfare. If Senator Ives finally agrees to the injunction, he will insist that it be linked with a provision giving government the power to seize and operate industries in which workers are forced by a court order to stay on the job.

Discussion of whys and wherefores on the Taft-Hartley act has at this moment a pretty academic sound. The question to be debated four months from now is likely to be where the blame lies for failure of Congress to act.

Most Republicans think they have succeeded in putting the President on a bad spot. But that perpetual maverick, Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, strongly disagrees. In an off-the-record talk before a group of House Republicans the other night he said:

"Don't think you will ever again get any votes from Labor, because you won't. As organized Labor grows in strength, you will be kicked off on the one. Don't deceive yourself into thinking the injunction has kept men at work. It hasn't mined a ton of coal and the maritime strike ran 95 days in spite of it."

In a brave, confident way the administration talked at the start of the session about Taft-Hartley action in 30 days. Ninety days have passed and any action seems further away than ever. Actually, this is not so much a changed climate as the same atmosphere that prevailed during the two years of the 80th Congress. The dominant theme is: frustration compounded with delay.

JOBS UPON A TIME

CAPERNICUS was a star-gazer, born in Thorn in Prussian Poland, in 1473. He studied mathematical science at the University of Cracow and at 23 went to Bologna and attended astronomical lectures. He also studied medicine. After his return to Prussia in 1505, he was a canon of the church, yet never took the orders of a priest. With all his varied activities he elaborated a new theory of astronomy, which, when adopted, fundamentally changed men's outlook on the universe. His treatise was printed in 1543, but he himself was seized with an attack of apoplexy toward the close of 1542, and the first printed copy of his great work reached him just in time to be laid on his deathbed. He died May 24, 1543.

THOMAS MEIGHAN once was a favorite leading man of both stage and silent screen. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., April 9, 1879. He planned to become a physician, but instead made his first appearance on the legitimate stage with the late Henrietta Crossman in "Mistress Nell." He played next with Grace George, then with William Collier in "The Dictator." After 1916 he devoted himself entirely to the motion picture field. He died in 1936.

Thoughts On Churchill Visit

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—Someone during the war suggested that a large part of Winston Churchill's unique ability lay in the fact that he was the only world leader who had ever participated in a cavalry charge.

There is a lot to be said for this trenchant remark. Mr. Churchill, for all his knowledge of the present and concern for the future, still carries the air of "the romantic horseman who served the Empire in the time of its glory." He made a young fortune by recounting his adventures on the lecture platform and in book form. The fortune made him to enter politics. He was first as he remarked (in Boston) a Liberal and finally a Conservative. In the meanwhile he served as head of a wartime coalition which not only brought victory out of a seemingly hopeless series of defeats but also had a plan to give Britain a moderate program of social and economic reform.

Somewhat Like "T. R."

We never had a man like him in America, unless it was Theodore Roosevelt who was somewhat the same combination of energy, vision and talents. Yet T. R. was a gifted man, while Churchill is a genius—that being the essential but immeasurable difference. Today the only American who approaches Mr. Churchill in the grasp of world affairs is Senator Vandenberg, but again the difference is immeasurable. Last summer at the opening of the Republican Convention there was a tide which might have taken Vandenberg to the nomination and the presidency. The big Michigan Senator declined to launch his ship of destiny upon the tide which went down to the sea without him.

Winston Churchill has never let that happen to him. His belief in himself, in his personal mission of right and might, has never failed. And although he has been called a political turn-coat, the fact seems to be that the times have changed, not he. What was a liberal in the early century is patently a conservative at mid-century. And what was once British imperialism may yet turn out to be the modern equivalent of an Anglo-American guardianship of world affairs. If Churchill should live to be prime minister of an Atlantic Federation, we would have a Commonwealth of Nations that would resemble the British Empire far more than it would resemble the United States. If Churchill stands for anything, he stands for a belief that the English Speaking Peoples are the natural governors of the world.

Seems Old-Fashioned

This idea, flatly stated, seems as old-fashioned as a cavalry charge. If the idea came from anyone except Churchill, it would sound suspiciously like a Master Race theory. It does, in sober fact, seem to sound that way to a good many people who do not appreciate or understand this great man. Asides from Moscow to New Delhi hate him for it. Frenchmen like De Gaulle resent and suspect him. American provincials like Senator Langer consider him a terrible menace, and Churchill's own countrymen turned him out of office as soon as they safely could. Yet the question suggests itself whenever Churchill makes a major speech or presents another book: "Is this man behind his times—or is he ahead of them?"

Events have a way of justifying Winston Churchill. He has been right so many times when he seemed to be wrong! Four years ago, the United Nations was founded in the hope that world government was possible by means of discussion and debate. There was to be an equal partnership among the Great Powers. But Anglo-American leadership predominated from the beginning. So much so that Russia was never able to command a following in the General Assembly except by taking over a handful of satellite governments. Meanwhile the English Speaking leadership expressed itself in the Marshall Plan and the Atlantic Pact. We may soon find that we have created a Commonwealth of Nations which is held together by mutual advantages of trade, policed by a single military force and governed from a capital city. No man, it is safe to say, would be less surprised or more gratified than the former cavalry officer of the King's Empire.

Many of us hoped for something very different under the United Nations. Advanced thought, as we liked to call it, insisted on a One World concept—a union where nations are equal, just as the states are equal under the American union. But Churchill's visit suggests that the British model may be more practical than the American ideal. We may have to have World Empire before we can have World Union.

They Say

LONDON—Sir Stafford Cripps, British chancellor of the exchequer—"No magic formula can take the place of hard work and disciplined action."

WASHINGTON—President Truman—"The welfare of the world is now our responsibility. Whether you like it or not, we have been forced into that position."

WASHINGTON—Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chief economic adviser to President Truman—"Preparedness for possibly prolonged international tension should not borrow resources from the future but build up the economic potential and strengthen the social fabric."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE FATHER BUSINESS
The father business is the trade by which tomorrow's men are made.

If pride and peace of mind he'd earn,
There's much a father has to learn.
Because, beneath the good Lord's plan,
It takes a man to shape a man.

Instruction at the first begins
With bottles, bibs and safety pins;
The various cries for certain pains.
And when the knack for these he gains,
Later will come the duties near
The Lord is trusting him to do.

There are examples to be set
The boy will see, and not forget.
A father has to learn the way
To guide his son from day to day.
To show him both by word and deed

How men, in all that's best Succeed.

The father business has no chime
Or whistle sounding closing time;
No measured hours; by day and night
Fathers must labor for the right,
To teach what strangers seldom can.

It takes a man to build a man.

The World

and the

Mud Puddles

SUCKER GAMES

The game of Bingo has been played in these United States for several years without there having been stirred up a tremendous amount of opposition to it and excuse can be made for the hint of the police department that it may find itself "too busy" looking after the enforcement of laws in general to pay too much attention to the so-called "Pyramid" game, which has swept the country like wildfire. In the matter of the "Pyramid" game, the burden of police activity would be shifted to protecting people from their own credulity and gullibility.

For unnumbered years the law and the courts have tried to save the sucker from his own greed. The law has extended itself in many directions in pursuit of this objective. But humanity in general has resented this activity. When a man or woman chooses to be swindled, the law has a hard time intervening.

Get Something For Nothing
The motive back of the "Pyramid" idea, of course, is the same which is back of all gambling—the hope of the gambler to get something for nothing—or nearly nothing.

While normal persons must deplore the get-rich-quick idea involved in the "Pyramid" scheme, many persons of law-abiding character will question whether or not it is the duty of law enforcement officials to spend their time and the public money in an effort to protect a group of suckers from their own stupidity.

If a brother wants to grab a buzz-saw by the hand, how many policemen are we going to detail to prevent him?

Gains Are Made
By Conservatives
In Great Britain

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 8.—Labor candidates for London's county council held a narrow advantage over conservatives today. Political experts examined the results to discern a reaction to the laborites' controversial "austerity" budget.

With 19 seats still in doubt, labor held 58 places, the conservatives 49 and liberals one in the London voting.

However, as of early today, the conservatives claimed 106 seats in balloting in 12 counties while the laborites claimed 47 and minor parties five.

In Middlesex county, the conservatives upset a laborite council, gaining 20 seats and winning 63 seats to labor's 23.

While the votes were tabulated, Sir Stafford Cripps appeared to have weathered a bitter intra-party struggle over his new and grim budget.

Nevertheless, the laborites still faced a two-pronged program connected with the chancellor of the exchequer's financial program—mounting trade union dissension and an apparent anti-labor trend in nation-wide results in municipal elections.

Charge Man With Revolver Offense

George Holland, who roomed at 20 Center way, is facing a charge of violating the uniform firearms act today, the charge having been made by chief of police Robert D. Hanna.

According to a police report Holland, while intoxicated, and disorderly, wielded a .25 automatic revolver last night, threatening a woman roomer at the same place.

Police were summoned, and while they were enroute to Center way, Holland left, threw away the gun, but was captured by policemen H. L. Richards and Del Weiss, who also found the revolver between Scioto street and Center way.

In police court today he told Mayor John F. Haven that he had had the revolver and threw it away, hence the charge.

Fire Victims Have Partial Insurance

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woods of Princeton road, who lost all their possessions in a disastrous fire Thursday morning when their temporary home burned down, had partial insurance on their loss.

According to Mr. Woods, he carried $1,000 insurance on the building and $1,000 on the contents. The couple with their two children have moved in temporarily with Mrs. Woods' mother who resides in New Castle, until other arrangements can be made. Very little could be salvaged from the charred ruins of their block garage home in Shenango township despite valiant efforts of the Shenango department to save the home.

Steal $434.30 From Black Whale Cafe

Black Whale, in Apple Way, was burglarized of $434.30, some time after closing hours last night, according to a report made by Frank Golis, one of the proprietors, to police headquarters. Some whisky also was stolen.

The burglar, or burglars, re-named a screen from the top of a window on the south side of the structure, entered, took $100, from a bar drawer, then went to the second floor office where they found another $334.30.

The theft was discovered when proprietor Golis opened the saloon this morning.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN

Police today searched for a Ford 4-door sedan, light green in color, and bearing Pennsylvania license 2Z75, the property of Harlan Mone, R.D. 7. The car was stolen from a service station at East and North streets, where it had been parked.

Eastland Asks Anti-Spy Bill Be Broadened

Would Compel Communist Trained Spies To Register With The Justice Department

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(INS)—Sen. Eastland (D Miss., demanded Thursday that the administration broaden anti-spy legislation to compel persons trained in espionage or sabotage by the Communist party to register with the Justice department.

"The bill—other parts of which were criticized as being too tight—came under fire by Eastland when it was disclosed that trainees of the American Communist party would be exempt from registration the foreign-trained potential spies.

The measure being studied by Eastland's Senate Judiciary subcommittee would require registration of persons trained in espionage age or tactics of a foreign government or a "foreign political party."

Eastland declared that under the bill the government would have the burden of proving in any prosecution not only that the person had received spy training, but that the American Communists are "a foreign political party."

Sen. Ferguson (R Mich., declared that under the provision Elizabeth T. Bentley, confessed courier for a Communist spy ring, would not have had to register as a spy trainee.

Alfred Krupp Gets 12-Year Sentence

FRANKFURT, April 8.—(INS)—U. S. Military Governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay on Tuesday confined the 12-year prison sentence meted out to Alfred Krupp, former chief of Germany's greatest arms plants.

Sentences on other plant executives ranging from two to seven years also were confirmed.

The defendants were accused of plundering Nazi-occupied countries during the war.

You, with your defective hearing, have at least the advantage of missing a lot of all the rot we, with good ears, have to listen to."

I have been worrying a bit about my eyes. I have to wear glasses when I read and, without glasses, closelyby objects have a tendency to look blurred.

So, at breakfast, I used my glasses this morning.

I didn't realize that the texture of a roll was so coarse until I put on my glasses. A couple of weeks ago I bought some Chinaware without putting on my spectacles. The stuff had looked fine. This morning I noticed how cheaply the design had been put on, how defective the glazing.

After breakfast I looked at myself in the mirror—with my glasses on. Horror! Was that me, or I, to be grammatical.

I came to the conclusion that maybe one is better off with the eyesight a little impaired.

So you see, as in the story, perfect eyes and ears and teeth may be great in theory but they can be troublesome in practice.

Coast Guard Search Fails To Find Any Phantom Schooner

Norfolk Coast Guard Fails To Find Flying Dutchman Schooner 36 Hours

NORFOLK, Va., April 8.—(INS)—The Coast Guard at Norfolk Thursday said a 36-hour search of the Atlantic off Charleston, S. C., failed to locate a phantom "Flying Dutchman" schooner.

The eerie ship was sighted Tuesday some 300 miles from Charleston by the tanker Robert Cleveland. The Cleveland's master said there was no answer aboard the sailing vessel when the tanker blasted her whistle.

The schooner's dinghy was still tied astern, indicating to officers of the Cleveland that her crew may have abandoned ship in a bosun's chair rigged by another vessel.

A report from Charleston said the Coast Guard cutter Travis was still bucking heavy seas and high winds off the Carolinas coast in the quest for the schooner.

McKeesport Kiwanis Stops Absenteeism

PITTSBURGH, April 8.—(INS)—The McKees Rocks Kiwanis club has an effective plan for cutting absenteeism from regular meetings.

William F. Cercone, Allegheny county assistant district attorney, became the custodian of a pair of rabbits for missing a meeting of the club Wednesday night.

Now he must take care of the rabbits until another member misses a meeting, then they are passed on to the next member.

However, bunnies appearing while the rabbits are in his care must be kept by Cercone.

Volcanoes may lie dormant for hundreds of years and then break out with great violence.

West Side Pupils Present Program

Easter Play, "Magie Egg," Presented Before Parents At School Building Today

Culminating weeks of practice, boys and girls at the West Side grade school, presented an excellent program today at the school before a large assemblage of parents and friends. The program centered around a play, "The Magie Egg" which was directed by Miss Margaretta Hess, Miss Belle Kyle and other teachers in the building.

The cast consisted of approximately 50 pupils who formed a large mixed chorus who presented such Easter hymns as: "Beautiful Saviour"; "Were You There"; "Christ Arose" and "Christ the Lord is Risen Today." Prior to the curtain opening, the choir sang "Welcome, Sweet Springtime" and concluded their performance with "Easter Parade."

Appearing in the play as characters were: Ralph Perkins, Norma Zuzow, William Russell, Joseph Delia, Shirley Richardson, Joan Perkins, Robert Wolfbrandt, Margie Adams, Carl Phillips, Carolyn Fox, Ina Nelson, Kenneth Boyd, Carol Phillips, Alfred Smith, Carol Finamore, Melvina Golling, George Scraniz.

Curtains were in charge of Thomas Schweikert and lights in charge of Frank Johnson. The fine costumes and decorations were made by Miss Kyle's art class.

Would Protect School Buses

HARRISBURG, April 8.—(INS)—Pennsylvania was well on the way toward making unlawful the passing by motorists of loading or unloading school buses.

House-approved legislation was prepared for final consideration in the Senate tomorrow to impose a $20 fine or 10 days in jail for drivers not stopping more than 10 feet from halted school buses.

The measure was co-sponsored by Reps. Edwin C. Ewing (R) Allegheny, and William R. McMillen (R) Indiana.

Puerto Rico's richest crop is pineapple, worth $670 an acre as against only $250 for sugar cane.

Edgar Allen Poe, generally considered one of the foremost literary geniuses produced in the United States, spent most of his life heavily in debt and in near poverty. At one time when he was completely out of funds, he lived for nine days on boiled dandelions.

Final Luncheon Report
Meeting Conducted Thursday Morning By YW
Workers

YET TO RECEIVE
MORE MEMBERSHIPS

Final luncheon report meeting was held Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock for the Annual YWCA Membership Ingathering, with Mrs. C. M. England, as chairman of the membership committee, presiding.

Total membership for the week were 474 and the grand total to date is 1575 memberships.

The grand total at last report meeting for 1948 was 1666 memberships, with the grand total for 1948 being 1811 memberships.

Epworth Methodist, Mahoning Methodist, First U. P., Second U. P., Third U. P., New Wilmington, Junior Business Girls, I. I. Mothers, Mrs. Williams special members from Elm street branch went over their last year's report.

Many To Be Contacted

Some 1948 members have not yet been contacted either because they have been away or for some other reason. Many workers plan to still contact such members. Often contact is difficult to make and it will be appreciated if women or girls wishing to renew their memberships would stop in and do so at the main desk of the Y.

All new participants in YW activities, such as the classes, and the mothers of children who attend the free nursery, are invited to join.

More and more women in the YWCA feel that they have a responsibility on the national level, just as they do in their churches and in other organizations, and consequently, contribute an amount additional to the one dollar membership in the local association.

Serving delicious sandwiches and coffee at the luncheon table were members from the First Methodist church and Elm street. They included Mrs. Gillespie, Miss Ivory, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Bazley, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Shiner, Mrs. Horning, Mrs. Ligon, Mrs. Nail, Mrs. Coates, and Mrs. Haight.

Wins Big Verdict For Loss Of Eye

Tony Mazi Is Awarded
$12,961.75 For Injuries
Received In Car Accident

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

One of the largest verdicts in years was returned in the Lawrence County court house Thursday.

For the loss of an eye and other injuries, Tony Mazi was awarded $12,961.75. The verdict was against W. S. McAnis and Robert C. McAnis of Mount Jackson.

The testimony showed that Mazi was standing on the left side of his automobile on the highway in Mount Jackson. Robert McAnis drove into him, injuring him severely.

The case was first called last November at which time Mazi did not appear. The defense insisted upon calling the jury and a directed verdict was given the defendants.

Later counsel for Mazi asked for a new trial, which was granted.

Two out of the state residents were litigants in another case. Albert Meyers and the Dyo Chemical Company, a Texas company, and Mel Buchanan, sued Gene John Pelosi, of Johnstown, N. Y., for damages arising out of an automobile accident on Mahoning avenue. The chemical company was awarded $422.45 and Buchanan was awarded $85.

William C. Taylor, of New Castle, was awarded $1300 damages against Paul F. Kuhn and George V. Kuhn of Lowellville, O., for injuries sustained when he was crossing Mercer street at East Washington street. The accident happened on February 16, 1948.

WOULD CHANGE FISCAL YEAR

Under the terms of a bill in the General Assembly, the fiscal year for counties would be changed from January 1 to December 31, and would run from July 1, to June 30.

The idea back of the bill is to give new county commissioners a chance to familiarize themselves with the office before the beginning of the new fiscal year. As it is now, three new county commissioners go into office on the first Monday of January and the new fiscal year goes in about the same time.

Another bill would give county commissioners in sixth class counties $1000 "expenses" for handling the affairs of the institutional district.

Getting It Out Of Their Systems

Children do get "fed up" with us as parents and with the fact that we so often have to interfere with their fun. Sometimes they would like to hit us. Many times they would like to express the way they feel. Unfortunately, most parents feel that this is not a good thing. If a child does express hostility or anger he is made to feel that he is "bad." Given a chance to get something out of his system often takes away the pressure of his antagonism.

One of my friends is a pretty understanding father. Recently, for some reason or other, he had to forbid his daughter from accompanying him to the cellar. She was quite angry and, child-like, burst out "I'd like to cut you in three pieces and burn you in the furnace." He was mildly interested and answered, "Oh, would you?" Later as the children were going to bed, this seven-year-old threw her arms around his neck and said, "Daddy, I'm going to kiss you three times."

One can't be sure of all that goes on in a child's mind. She may have felt a bit guilty about her earlier feeling and have wanted to make it up to him. As likely, however, this was a way of showing appreciation at the kind of understanding he showed when he didn't reprimand her or seem to get upset at her gruesome wishes.

Chicago Man Faces Housing Victims

CHICAGO, April 8.—(INS)—Gilford Ellsworth Smith, 29, was a willing listener in taverns and restaurants whenever someone discussed housing problems.

Smith was so eager to be helpful he even answered advertisements for apartments in the want ads.

Anthony Lamendola said that Smith answered his ad and tipped him about a vacant apartment for only $5.

The vacant apartment turned out to be a vacant lot.

He told his story to police and related how they might question Smith who was "helping" an Oak Park friend with housing problems.

Thursday night 18 persons who told police they gave Smith fees ranging from $1 to $60 will view Smith at a showup.

U. S. Attorney Expects Indictment
To Be Handed Up Before
Day Is Over

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—Presentation of evidence against Richard E. Crowe, 41, the National City bank official who was captured in Florida after absconding with $883,660 on March 27, was started today before a federal grand jury.

Chief Assistant U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol, who presented the government's case, said he expected an indictment to be handed up before the day is over.

Peter F. Gulotta, Crowe's attorney, indicated he also expects an indictment. He told reporters: "I don't believe Crowe is guilty. He didn't know the nature and extent of his acts. I've known him for 16 years. I think he's honest. I would give him my shirt right now."

"What he did is not plausible except if his mind were not quite adjusted to normalcy."

A. J. May Plans New Appeal From Court On Bribery Charges

U. S. Court Of Appeals Formerly Upheld His Conviction On Bribery Charges

PRESTONBURG, Ky. April 8.—(INS)—Ex-Rep. Andrew J. May (D)

Ky., today planned a new appeal from the U. S. court of appeals decision upholding his conviction on bribery conspiracy charges.

The appeals court Wednesday reaffirmed its previous two to one decision in January upholding the conviction of May and munitions makers Henry and Murray Garsson.

May said his attorney in Washington, Warren Magee, is handling details.

The former congressman was once chairman of the powerful House military affairs committee. He and the Garssons were sentenced to eight months to two years in prison on charges of bribery and conspiring to defraud the government.

The sentence followed federal court testimony that May received about $53,000 from the Garssons in return for putting "pro-Garsson" pressure on the war department. All three are free on bail.

Because of hostile Indians, after 50 years of exploration Idaho was almost completely abandoned by white folk.

Communist Plans Told To Jury By FBI 'Counterspy'

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—Herbert A. Philbrick, appearing as a government witness against 11 top American communist leaders, continued today to reveal the information he gleaned as an FBI "counterspy."

Philbrick was on the stand for the third day since he first identified himself as a card-carrying party member who had been an FBI "contact" since 1940.

Yesterday, the 33-year-old Melrose, Mass., advertising man told the jury in the conspiracy trial that party members, including himself, were instructed to "colonize" key industries such as steel, railroads and textiles.

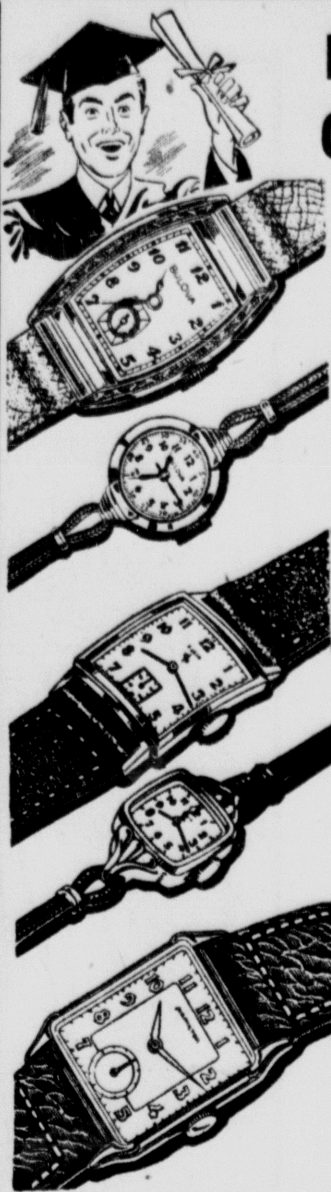

He said the instructions were issued at a "party building" meeting in Boston on Feb. 7, 1947, which was attended by 100 persons.

Philbrick also testified that Communists were told the United States would be ripe for revolution in event of a major depression or another war.

Conservatives Make Gains In Elections Held In Britain

LONDON, April 8.—(INS)—Sir Stafford Cripps, backed by the laborite government, appeared today to have weathered a bitter inter-party struggle over his new austerity budget.

But indications were that the labor party still faced a two-pronged problem connected in some measure with the Chancellor of the Exchequer's financial program—mounting trade union dissension and an apparent anti-labor trend in results from the municipal elections.

As of early today the conservatives claimed 106 seats in balloting in 12 counties including London, while the laborites claimed 57, with five seats going to minor party candidates. Full results are expected at noon today.

The London council, currently laborite, showed the conservatives leading 43-34 with 51 seats still to be accounted for. If the conservatives win 31 of these seats they will win control of the council.

The conservatives won a resounding victory in Middlesex county—formerly laborite—with 63 seats to labor's 23, a gain of 20 over the government party.

FARMERS SCREAM

LONDON.—(INS)—British small farm owners are complaining they cannot absorb heavy costs for labor and necessary new machinery. Government circles are said to be greatly concerned since three-quarters of the nation's farms are of less than 75 acres.

The average farm in the cotton belt of the U. S. is 80 acres, and in the wheat fields of the Great Plains, 400 acres is average.

The death first was attributed to a heart attack, but investigation showed a high percentage of carbon monoxide in the victim's blood. Wiehagen said Katz apparently took his life after a quarrel with Miss Hock at a skating rink.

Later in 1935 it became a definite part of the program for women in missionary societies.

Miss Hanna Walker had as the foreign topic, "Korea" and used the article "Hope of Korea", which states that women doctors are very scarce in Korea and that the only answer to Communism in Korea is the challenge of the Living Christ.

Miss Blanche Bright conducted the business meeting and a gift of money was voted, to further the work of Mr. Vogle in Kentucky. Miss Bright also appointed two delegates, Mrs. T. C. Boston and Mrs. Carl Wilson to attend the Presbyterial to be held in the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, April 21.

The hostess served a delicious lunch assisted by Mrs. Ben Jenkins and Mrs. Margaret Woodings.

Government To Help Make War Trophies Harmless For Homes

Cooperating Agencies Offer Advice For Deactivating Explosive Souvenirs

United States Treasury, War, and Navy departments are cooperating with the National Rifle association to facilitate public safety in the handling of explosive-type war trophies.

This program was necessitated in view of the many casualties to military personnel and civilians, especially children, resulting from handling war trophies. In 1947, 4,300 children were maimed or killed by these "harmless" souvenirs.

In order to assist the owners of war trophies in making them safe, a state committee representing the agencies named has been organized for the purpose of directing the owners to the nearest available facility where the trophies may be examined and, with the owners' permission, made harmless, if necessary.

Test Dangerous Trophies
The particularly dangerous type of trophies include land mines, grenades, shells, projectiles, cartridges, semi-automatic rifles, machine guns and machine pistols.

These agencies have no desire to reclaim the souvenir for the government but merely wish to help save lives and limbs.

Owners of war trophies desiring to take advantage of this offer should communicate with the committee member whose address is as follows:

Investigator in Charge,
722 New Federal Bldg.,
Pittsburgh, 19, Pa.

This official will furnish details as to the procedure to be followed in securing the desired assistance.

C.A.P. Activation To Get Under Way

Call Meeting For Next Tuesday Evening At Armory To Ap-point Officers For Unit

Officers for the reactivated Civil Air Patrol will be selected at the Cunningham Armory on Tuesday evening, April 12, when a group of interested young men of this district will meet for the creation of this new group, it was announced today.

More than 85 civilians and pilots met at Wilson's aviation school rooms at the New Castle airport recently to discuss the formation of this new civilian group for the New Castle area. Rudy Walters spoke and told of the advantages to the people of New Castle and vicinity.

The unit when organized will be about 300 strong, including 14 staff officers, pilots and cadets and will be a part of the U. S. air force's link training, meteorology, observation and navigation. There will be two classes of cadets, 15 to 18 and 18 to 21.

The Civil Air Patrol is of vital importance to each city and plays many vital rolls in time of floods and disaster as well as serve as a national defense volunteer unit.

The meeting next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock will see further outlining of the program. New Castle airport was visited recently by Major E. K. Long and staff of Pittsburgh and the district was urged to back the new CAP.

Many Will Share In Overseas Appeal For Clothing On Sunday

Expect Large Amount Of Shoes, Bedding And Wearing Apparel To Be Brought To Churches

Citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county will have an opportunity on Sunday, to assist in clothing the more unfortunate citizens of Europe when clothing, bedding and shoes will be brought to the Sunday schools of the city and county. The drive spearheaded by Rev. C. A. Smith, superintendent of City Mission, is sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association.

Rev. Smith has stressed the fact that only wearing articles of clothing, wearable shoes and clean usable bedding are desired for the collection. Items not usable should not be brought in as they cannot be processed with the articles and will only make extra work for the processors at Easton, or Windsor, Maryland, where the articles will be taking for sorting.

Each Sunday school will provide a suitable receptacle for storing the contributions until the truck can call for them on Monday. Fred Clark of the county truckers association will have trucks pick up the articles on Monday and taking them to the central storage point. In Ellwood City, Frank Wiley will handle this end of the work. Churches should be left open Monday morning in order that the collections might be lifted.

The articles that are presented in the line of clothing, need not be pressed, but they must be clean. Shoes should be tied in pairs. Cards have been provided in order that names can be attached to the gifts which in many cases will be acknowledged by the grateful Europeans.

Washington Situation Is Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright—1949—Publishers Financial Bureau, Incorporated
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—A friend in Cleveland, Mr. E. J. Kulas, calls my attention to the following written by Thomas Jefferson, founder of the Democratic party, about 150 years ago! Read it carefully—then cut it out and send it to your congressman. It should be printed on the fly-leaf of every school book: "I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers. To preserve our independence, we must make our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude. If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy. The same prudence which in private life would forbid our paying our money for unexplained projects, forbids it in the disposition of public money."

Is Our Congress To Blame?
The above statement by Jefferson is as true today as when he made it, yet President Truman won his election by preaching the very opposite and Governor Dewey did not have the courage to defy Mr. Truman. Both candidates and their fellow travelers ignored the truth and gave the people what, in their ignorance, they wanted. This same thing has happened at various times in history and was the primary cause for the fall of Grecian, Roman, Teutonic and other republics.

Can the few honest congressmen accomplish much now? Yes, without opposing further New Deal measures, they can force legislation to encourage producers. They can work for legislation which will help manufacturers that they can pay increased taxes. Unfortunately, the New Dealers started a dangerous prairie fire; whether it can be controlled or must burn itself out, only the future can tell.

Is Truman Wholly To Blame?
Very few, except those who are close to the White House, realize the tremendous amount of mail which the President gets. Naturally, he can read only one letter out of every thousand; but all are read by someone and tabulated as to whether they condemn or approve the President's policy. They are a kind of daily "Gallup poll" for the White House. The simple truth is that when President Truman makes an address appealing for more social security, more sick benefits, more unemployment insurance, more farm supports, and even more taxes, which must go with these increased government benefits, 90 per cent of these millions of letters approve.

The Republicans think that Mr. Truman was elected because the country was prosperous; but that when unemployment comes in 1950 or 1952, the Democrats will be thrown out. It is true that such a rule has usually worked in the past. But, will it work next time? In the past, the existing administration had no way of helping the unemployed lacking bread, and the farmers threatened by foreclosures. Now, this has all changed. The present administration, even in an election during a depression, could promise so much more help than the Republicans would promise the old rule might not apply again.

What Should Readers Do?
The first thing to realize is that the money which is given away in price supports or pensions, must be collected from all the readers of this column. The second thing to realize is that these funds can be taken away from the rich only for a few years. Soon these will be no profits to tax. What then? The answer is very simple. If the unfortunate non-producers are to be supported by the fortunate producers, which is the basis of the New Deal philosophy and has some justification, then production and economy should be encouraged in every possible way by congress, by labor unions, and especially by our schools in order to have funds to tax.

The same basic truths which Jefferson preached apply today and we should teach these to our children. Some of us parents may hang on to enough money to keep us going through our few remaining years, whatever happens to the country. With our children this will be very different. Only character, hard work and economy, on their part, will save them. All cannot ride in the government's car or it will stop. Some must pull the cart. My appeal is that accompanying all New Deal legislation should be special benefits to all corporations and individuals engaged in useful production. Otherwise, we all "go bust".

AIR-MINDED
NEW YORK (INS)—New York City travelers were 13.6 per cent more air-minded during 1948 than the previous year. Trans-World Airline records showed 34 per cent more passengers boarded planes at Newark airport and 6.9 per cent more at LaGuardia.

The volcanoes of Kilauea and Mauna Loa of the Hawaiian islands were built up from the bottom of the ocean to their present height by outpourings of ashes, lava and rocks.

Young Boy Awarded $45,000 Damages In Truck Accident

Has Plans For Going Into Business With The Money He Has Been Awarded

MALDEN, Mass., April 8.—(INS)—Robert F. Barry, 17, prays that some day he may walk again, but meantime he is full of plans for going into business with the money he has been awarded for the crushing of his legs in a street accident. Young Robert was awarded $45,000 damages for the injuries suffered when he was run over by a truck while playing near his Malden home two years ago. Wednesday, the award, the highest in such a case ever allowed in Massachusetts, was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

"It was wonderful news," Robert said of the high court's decision. "I'd like eventually to start a little business, but I don't know yet what type of business I'd like. It would have to be something small—something I could run myself."

"Of course," the boy added wist-

fully, "I dream all the time of some day walking again. But I feel good now, and you can't expect everything at once."

Robert was a discouraged youngster when first he went to City Hospital. But then he met Clarence Sasso, a 30-year-old World War II veteran, also of Malden. Sasso has built an active life for himself, even though he lost the use of both his legs on Luzon.

"I can do it, too," says Robert.

and he has plenty of support. His hospital bills were paid by the people of Malden, who raised $9,000 for him. And world-famed surgeon Dr. Donald Munro, who operated on the youth, refused to accept a penny for his services.

A ton of pulpwood from which newsprint is made today costs nearly double what it did in 1939, and mill labor about 150 per cent more.

Bull Escapes From Boston Stockyards Roms Down Street

After Final Last Fling At Life Young Bull Is Finally Shot By Patrolman

BOSTON, April 8.—(INS)—A young bull escaped on Thursday from the Brighton stock yards and took a final fling at life. He took an exhilarating two-mile sprint down Commonwealth avenue. Enroute he spotted Miss June Burns, 18, of Cambridge. Miss Burns was attired in a bright red coat. Miss Burns was attired in a bright red coat. The bull took off after Miss Burns. She took off for her nearby place of employment. The young lady won the race with nothing to spare. The young bull pressed his big black face against a window for a few minutes. But life was too short for a young bull to be mooning over a lost red coat like a sick cow. He whirled and sprinted into a parking lot, there to cavort among the bright new automobiles. The parking lot was enclosed by a high wire fence. The gate was closed and Patrolman Harry J. Hayes killed the bull.

Gruesome Murder Is Uncovered In Burning Of Shanty

DEAN, Pa., April 8.—(INS)—State police joined Cambria county detectives today in the investigation of a gruesome mystery surrounding a death in a fire which destroyed a Hillside mining shanty in Dean township Wednesday. Evidence that the victim's body had been mutilated before the fire led to the investigation. The body has been identified tentatively as that of Miss Loda Irwin, 33, of Morrisdale. Freeman King, 43, of near Philipsburg, who owned the shanty, is being held by detectives on a technical charge of suspicion. Police said only the torso of the charred body has been found.

"SOUTH PACIFIC" IS PRESENTED

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—New York was splashed today by a tidal wave of adjectives in praise of "South Pacific," a musical which moved onto Broadway behind an unprecedented advance ticket sale of $500,000. Regardless of the opinions of a brilliant array of first nighters, the show had banked more than double its invested capital before the curtain went up last night, and was assured of capacity audiences through July.

Phone Company To Move Office

Commercial Office Will Occupy New Quarters On South Mercer Street

EXPECT TO MOVE OVER WEEKEND

It was announced today by Local Manager N. N. Jaquish of the Bell Telephone company that commercial offices will be moved to their newly-remodeled quarters at 29 South Mercer street, immediately adjoining the present offices, over the weekend.

The new quarters to be occupied by the business office of the company was leased from the Genkings, who own the building, several months ago and remodeling has been under way since around the first of the year. The location was formerly occupied by the Streamline market, and will give the company much more room and at the same time release the space which was used for the business office for other purposes.

At the same time District Manager H. D. Choate, whose office has been located in the Greer building, will also move to the new office building.

Duff Would Favor Erie Turnpike If Traffic Justifies

Glad Legislation Has Been Introduced To Make Permissive Extension Of Pike

HARRISBURG, April 8.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff said today he would be "vigorously" for the Erie turnpike "if the traffic count justifies it."

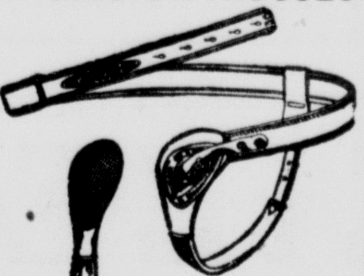

The governor said, in reference to a measure to add a leg to the super-highway introduced by Sen. C. Arthur Blass (R) Erie, he would favor an extension if the burden of traffic "would indicate that the extension would carry itself like the eastern and western extensions have indicated."

"I'm very glad legislation has been introduced to make permissive extension of the turnpike," he declared.

The Blass measure passed the senate last week on an unanimous vote and presently is lodged in the house highways committee.

The origin of the town of Ghent, Belgium, is uncertain. It is first mentioned in the seventh century, but does not seem to have acquired much importance until the 12th century. By the end of the 13th century, Ghent was much larger than Paris then was.

Declares 88 Have Been Released By State Department

Regarded As 'Undesirable Employees', Rep. Stefan Reports Today

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(INS)—Rep. Stefan (R) Neb., declared Thursday that 88 "undesirable employees" have been "released" by the state department during the past year as a result of a congressional investigation.

The Nebraskan, who last year headed a house appropriations subcommittee on the state department, declared that others who should be let go by the state department and other government agencies.

Stefan charged that the state department appointed to its selection board, which reviews and determines the selection of foreign service officers, a man arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

He said in a speech prepared for delivery in the house that the grand did not indict the man, but none the less he should not have been named to an important post.

Stefan did not name the individual. He said that the FBI charged him "with transmitting classified official documents to unauthorized persons" and termed his appointment "misguided and unfortunate".

Stefan's statement was issued in connection with house consideration of the appropriation bill containing $684,616,000 for the state, justice and commerce departments and the federal judiciary for the 1950 fiscal year.

Pretzel Institute Report High Sales

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 8.—(INS)—Americans are eating more pretzels.

Consumption of the twisted delights increased 50 per cent from 1939 to 1947, according to the National Pretzel Baking institute.

Alex Tisdale, institute president, however, believes that Americans should eat more pretzels.

He told a gathering of pretzel manufacturers in Allentown that the institute is promoting the idea that pretzels go with a variety of foods and drink rather than beer alone.

He reported, incidentally, that pretzels were originated by monks in the monasteries of Southern Europe and the twists were designed to represent arms folded in prayer.

Shiprock, a famous landmark in northwestern New Mexico, is an igneous cliff formation resembling a giant ship in full sail. It towers 1,400 feet above the surrounding country.

Special Election In New York State

Governor Dewey Sets Date For Election Of Congressman In 20th District

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—(INS)—Governor Dewey on Thursday called a special election for May 17 in the 20th congressional district, Manhattan, to choose a successor to the late Representative Sol Bloom, who died March 7.

The Dewey proclamation was issued a day after the American Labor party, seeking to force a special election call, obtained an order requiring the governor to show cause today why he should not issue the call.

Members of the Dewey staff pointed out that it was customary to wait 30 days after the death of an incumbent before calling a special election.

Nationwide interest in the special election has been created by the decision of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., to run in it on the liberal and four freedoms ticket.

Roosevelt sought the regular Democratic nomination, but this caused a furor in Democratic ranks, both among Tammany leaders of the 20th district and among party leaders throughout the state.

Symphonic Notes

The viola is the contralto of the string choir. It is somewhat larger than the violin, and in size as well as musical relationship occupies the place between the deep-toned cello and the brilliant violin. Its strings are slightly thicker than violin strings, and the two lower ones are wire wound. Its tone is sonorous and supplies a tonal mass of great importance to the orchestra. The viola is highly necessary and desirable.

The violists with the New Castle Symphony orchestra are Anne Hoyer, principal; Francis Hammond, James Thompson, Robert Florida and John Paten, Jr.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Men whose shirt-fronts have an affinity for gravy can avoid domestic strife today—by wearing a new plastic dickie.

To help wives avoid wash-day blues on "the morning after" a formal party, men's clothing designers have turned out a vinylite shirt front for graceless wearers of tuxes and white-tie-tails.

The dickie is pliable, pretty and priced low. It's surface is stamped with cell-like design to simulate pique.

Missing Chicago Child Is Found

CHICAGO, April 8.—(INS)—Patricia Ann Boseth, 3, reported missing from her home since early Wednesday night, and feared by police to have been kidnapped, was found unharmed Thursday.

A woman brought the child to Racine Avenue police. She said she found Patricia wandering in Lincoln Park Wednesday night and took her to her home because the child did not know her own home address.

The woman, Miss Irene Wall, 28, told officers that when she found Patricia her nose was bleeding and face was scratched apparently from a fall. Miss Wall reported she was otherwise uninjured and slept well during the night.

Plot To Kidnap Harlem Man Is Foiled By Police

Two Patrolmen Seized Five Men Outside Intended Victims Apartment

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—An alleged plot to kidnap and rob a wealthy Harlem businessman was claimed to have been frustrated on Thursday when two patrolmen seized five men outside the intended victim's apartment.

Four of the prisoners were arrested in a parked car bearing Florida license plates.

The fifth, Fernando Girana, 23, of Miami Beach, owner of the car, was seized as he emerged from the apartment on upper Fifth avenue.

"You're just the fellows I want to see," Girana told waiting police. "I don't see my car here. Somebody must have stolen it."

"Nobody stole it," Girana was told. "You're under arrest. We have your car and your friends too."

Police said Girana planned to kidnap the unidentified businessman, take him to Morningside Park on the upper West Side, and rob him. But the intended victim wasn't home.

A loaded .32 caliber Belgian-made revolver allegedly was found in Girana's car. Facing gun-carrying charges, besides Girana, are: Albert Gribhofer, 19, of Miami Beach, and John Russo, 19, Jose DePeralta, 23, and Milton Singer, 21, all of New York.

Detectives said Girana and Gribhofer met the businessman recently in Florida, were impressed with a big roll of greenbacks the man had, and then decided to trail him back to New York.

Community Field House Discussed

New Wilmington Rotarians Discuss Proposal; Other News

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, April 8.—Rotarians have appointed a committee of five to co-ordinate the work of various organizations in exploring the possibility of building a community field house as a memorial to the veterans of World War II.

Named to the committee are Burgess William Gilliland, W. Fillmore Campbell, Attorney Thomas Mansell and Harold Burns.

The proposed field house would take the place of the community hall which many hold to be inadequate.

Daylight saving time will be observed here during the coming summer as a result of action taken by council. The new time will go into effect Sunday, April 24, and continue until Sunday, Sept. 25.

Howard Rodgers has been elected president of the baseball club. Other officers are: Edward Reed, vice president, and Gayle Sharpe, secretary-treasurer.

The board will be composed of W. Fillmore Campbell, A. O. Shaffer, Ralph Shawkey, Harold Burns, George Brown, Thomas Ashcom, James Gaines, Troy Hill, Jacob Bengardner and June Silman.

Lyman Ringbloom, manager, expects to issue a call for players within the next several days.

Roger Hawk, Carl Mentch and Alexander Chambers, students at Westminster college, have been advised by boro council to make formal application for a permit to establish a miniature golf course, archery court and bicycle renting stand to the boro engineer.

The trio sought council's consent to use boro property. The solons replied that if the engineer grants the permit, there will be no objection on their part.

The site the men propose is north of the boro park.

The waste paper drive conducted by the Kiwanis club netted 10 tons, according to Griffith Williams, director of the drive. He stated that this was one of the most successful drives ever held.

Accompanied By Eddie Jacobson, President Truman's Personal Friend

PARIS, April 8.—(INS)—Israeli President Chaim Weizman, accompanied by Eddie Jacobson—President Truman's personal friend—arrived in Paris today, en route to the United States.

Jacobson, who once owned a haberdashery in partnership with President Truman in Kansas City, denied that he was the Chief Executive's personal envoy or that he was in line for the ambassadorship to Israel.

Jacobson said: "I wouldn't accept. First, I'm no diplomat. Second, we've already got a good man there (Ambassador James G. McDonald) and third, I live in the best town in the world and want to continue living there."

Jacobson will leave for the U. S. Saturday, while Dr. Weizman, who is due in New York for a testimonial dinner on April 24, will spend some time in Paris.

Flying Saucer Incidents Still To Be Explained

Army Air Force Says There Are Still Mysterious Incidents Unexplained

WASHINGTON, April 8.—(INS)—The Air Force said on Thursday that there are some incidents connected with the mysterious flying saucers seen in the skies last year "which are still unexplained."

An official statement also admitted that it is impossible to "deny categorically" that the weird objects originated in Russia or some other foreign nation.

The statement was issued in response to inquiries resulting from a radio commentator's assertion that the saucers were launched in the Soviet Union. The Air Force said:

"To date there has been no tangible evidence which would support a theory that any of the incidents are attributable to activity of a foreign nation. On the other hand, there is no evidence to deny categorically such a possibility."

"Many of the reported incidents have definitely been determined to be meteorological balloons or natural celestial phenomena. However, there are some incidents reported by reliable and competent observers which are still unexplained."

Federal Dope Agents Attempt To Stop Sale In Detroit Schools

Received Tips That Students Were Forming The Reefer Habit

DETROIT, April 8.—(INS)—Federal agents on Thursday attempted to stamp out the widespread sale and use of marijuana cigarettes in Detroit high schools.

More than five schools were checked after investigators received tips that the students were forming the "reefer" habit.

Federal narcotics agents opened a widespread investigation after arresting a 16-year-old pupil on charges of selling the dope cigarettes. The youth was held on a federal dope charge after selling several reefers to government agents.

Detroit Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy said the reefer trade among the teen-agers apparently "ties in with rings in New York and possibly international rings."

Local police and government officials were attempting to uncover the source of marijuana flooding the school.

Longshoremen were originally called "along-shore-men" because they worked on the wharves of seaports where they loaded and unloaded vessels.

STOCK MARKET
CHANGES SMALLPerformance In Market During Morning Is Highly Irregular

NEW YORK, April 8.—(INS)—The stock market turned in a highly irregular performance in early dealings today. Changes, though, were held to small fractions all along the line.

The majority of industrial favorites were lower. Fractional losses were sustained by General Motors, General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, Union Carbide, Westinghouse Electric and Chrysler.

American Woolen, one of yesterday's weak spots, continued under pressure, showing a new loss of 3/4 at 25 3/4.

Oils irregularly higher. Standard of New Jersey and Ohio were up small fractions, while Socony Vacuum eased nominally.

Rails were mixed with gains and losses at about a stand-off. On the plus side were Southern Pacific, Chesapeake and Ohio and Canadian Pacific. Minus signs were posted for Northern Pacific, Pennsylvania and Rock Island.

The bond market was irregular with Missouri Pacific issues in demand at fractionally higher level. Grains were under pressure in the commodity markets. Wheat declined 1 cent a bushel and corn was off as much as 1 1/2 cents. Cotton held steady.

Underinflated tires give more traction than those fully inflated by exposing more surface to the road.

While medical procedure is supplanting surgery in many fields, new surgical operations are being made possible that were undreamed of a few years ago.

Martha Beck Gets New Prison Guard

Lonely Hearts Killer Gets Guard That Doesn't Look Like Woman She Killed

MINEOLA, N. Y., April 8—(INS)—Martha Beck has a new prison guard today—one who does not look like widowed Janet Fay, for whose murder Mrs. Beck and Raymond Fernandez are awaiting trial. Sheriff Alfred Vollmer announced the resignation of Mrs. Augusta Carlson to whom Mrs. Beck took such a violent dislike that she feared she might attack her.

The 200-pound member of the lonely hearts murder team and her mail order Romeo partner lost in another of the complaints they registered with Nassau County Judge Henry J. A. Collins, in Mineola, Wednesday.

The court refused to dismiss the murder indictments on the defendants' plea that they are being accused on false evidence.

A HE MAN

He is a big strong fellow with big muscles and a strong back. He says that he looks out for himself and doesn't owe anything to anybody.

Mom has some ideas about that too. Who carried him around before he was born and for a couple of years after.

Who fed him and looked after his white squares.

Who built the school house for him?

Who vaccinated him and who made the vaccine?

Who provided the play ground for him?

Who built the church for him?

Who will care for him when he is old?

Who will bury him?

He is a He Man. He doesn't owe anything to Mom or Dad or the church or the community or anybody.

Would Increase Speed Of Trucks

HARRISBURG, April 8.—(INS)—The Senate has received from the House a measure proposing to increase maximum speeds for trucks to 50 miles an hour.

Sponsored by Rep. Preston A. Frost 'R' Centre, the measure was approved by a vote in the House last night of 129-53.

It would allow all trucks to travel at 50 miles an hour on "open highways" and would increase limits to higher speeds on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

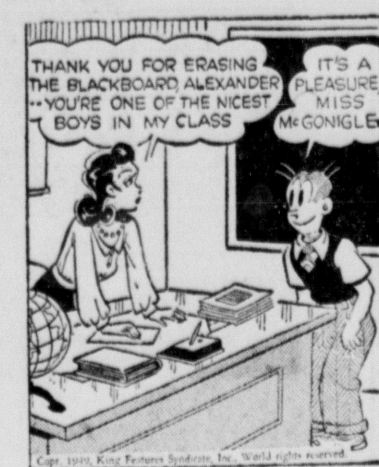

Certain trucks presently are limited to speeds as low as 30 miles per hour.

A seventh recruit, Hal Bamberg, also will be farmed out.

Fred Corcoran, a Bostonian who acts as business manager for Ted Williams of the Red Sox, and for Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, has latched on to women's golf as one of the great undeveloped fields in sports.

Pennsylvania, western Maryland, Washington & Lee and Virginia will provide the opposition for the Penn State lacrosse team in its schedule-opening southern trip. The Lions meet Loyola of Baltimore at home April 23.

Eight Teams Set
In County Loop

Lowellville Entry Makes Full Circuit; McFate Elected Commissioner

Eight teams are poised and ready today for the umpire's "play ball" in the Lawrence County Baseball league Sunday, May 1.

Representatives of the eight clubs met last night at the Sporting Goods store and worked out all of the "paper" details for the coming season. Each team now needs only nine good husky ball players who run, throw and hit to insure a successful season.

Coy looks exchanged at the confab last night would lead one to believe that several of the managers already have some of that kind under contract.

The eight teams that will participate are Ellwood VFW, Hillsville St. Lucy's, Hillsville, Wampum Victory club, Koppel, Bessemer, Lowellville and New Galilee.

Interstate League
Lowellville is a newcomer to the league this year and adds an interstate flavor to the circuit.

Attorney Joseph R. McFate was elected league commissioner, succeeding Frank Coen, who has resigned.

President Alec Samuels, secretary Jim Martin and treasurer Bernie Hanlon were re-elected to their positions. George Patterson was elected vice-president.

Secretary Jim Martin is now drawing up the schedule which will be ready for adoption at the next meeting, April 21.

Shangnessy playoff system will prevail again this year but the first round series will have five games and the final one seven. Last year it was three and five.

Foster-Hunter
Battle Tonight

Vince Foster Tumultuous Young Nebraska Welter Heavy Favorite

By CHARLES EINHSTEIN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, April 8.—Vince Foster, tumultuous young welterweight and generous contributor to the support of his manager's ulcers, takes on Chuck Taylor in the ten-round main go at Chicago Stadium tonight.

The crowd is expected to near capacity though how many of the spectators may be classed as genuine lovers of the manly art of self defense is conjectural. Foster was served yesterday with a $100,000 damage suit in which a young lady from Kansas City alleges he assaulted her, and a friend of promoters Irving Schoenwald, and Jack Begun, who are putting on tonight's card, murmured:

"If this had only happened three days ago we would have sold out."

Heavy Advance Sale

He was referring to the advance sale, which had led the Messrs. Schoenwald and Begun to thing 12,000 would show up tonight, bearing with them a gross gate of $50,000.

The main event will see Foster climb between the ropes the favorite at odds of 2 to 1, or thereabouts. The Omaha puncher has been a national figure ever since he knocked out Tony Pellone in New York's Madison Square Garden last January. That was the last time Foster fought, incidentally, since he subsequently became involved with the assault charge which now has been introduced into Chicago circuit court.

York, the eastern finalist and an easy victim of the Quips, placed only one man, and was on the second team.

Sharon landed two first team berths and one on the second team. The Aliquippa selections:

First team—Listiak, Sharon; Garda, Leeburg; Matesic, Rankin; W. Jacobson, Sharon, and Margolis, Westmont.

Second team—Albright, Somerset; Liebendorfer, Beaver Falls; Franczkowski, Sharon; Rittern York, and Zuger, Homestead.

MANGRUM LEADS

MASTERS TOURNEY

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8.—(INS)—Only a slot machine owner had the winning confidence of Lloyd Mangrum today as he sought to conquer a second round jinx in the 13th Augusta masters golf tournament.

The Chicago shot-maker recorded a three-under-par 69 on the opening 18 holes yesterday. He held a one-stroke margin over amateur Frank Stranahan and was two swings in front of four others who dig divots for gold.

The annual affair will be completed this afternoon.

Jim Doone and Ben Haines, both seniors, became the first double winners yesterday.

Doone streaked across first in the 880 and Haines broke the tape in the high hurdles. Doone won the mile on Wednesday and Haines had taken the low hurdles on the same day.

Modzele Winner Of
Confused Decision

PITTSBURGH, April 8.—(INS)—Joe Modzele of New Kensington added a boxing victory to his record today, but it took three counts of the ballots at the Aragon Garden in Pittsburgh last night before anyone was sure.

After his 8-round bout with Johnny Denson of Indianapolis, it was announced that Modzele had won a split decision. A check of the ballots caused a switch to a draw decision.

Then it was noticed one of the judges had given Modzele 4 rounds, Denson 3 and one even, but had marked his decision as "draw."

The judge, Frank Styper, quickly admitted he had erred, and Modzele was declared the winner again.

Ringside observers said Modzele won easily.

ECCLESIAN CLUB WILL WORK OUT

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the Ecclesian club baseball team will have its first workout of the season, it was announced by manager Mike Annerella. All of the 1948 players and any others wanting a tryout are asked to report.

FAVOR RED WINGS
TO TOP TORONTO

DETROIT, April 8.—(INS)—The Detroit Red Wings take the ice against the Toronto Maple Leafs tonight rated solid favorites to return the Stanley cup to the United States for the first time since 1933.

Penn State's rugged line restricted nine opponents to an average of 83 yards per game during the 1948 football season.

PIRATES DEFEAT
HOUSTON 3 TO 0

HOUSTON, Tex., April 8.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates broke a three-game losing streak, but they had to pick a minor league team to do it. The Bucs shut out Houston of the Texas league last night 3-0. Bob Muncie pitched six innings for Pittsburgh, giving up only two hits, and Kirby Higbe finished with a hitless chore. Danny Murtaugh's two singles and a double were the only high spots for the Pirates offensively.

JACKSON WINS
OVER GRAHAM

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—(INS)—A last-minute substitute took bows today for upsetting Otis Graham, crack North Philadelphia welterweight, in an eight rounder at the Met last night.

Taking over in place of Buster Tyler, Stonewall Jackson, 151, of Washington, D. C., took a unanimous decision over Graham, 151. Graham, a hefty clouter, had won seven straight bouts.

Shenango Pottery Local Wins Y Tourney

Whip Third U.P. 56-39 In Finals

Shenango Pottery Local 3125 lowered the boom on Third U. P. last night in the senior gold medal tournament finals and won 56 to 39 at the Y.

El Fityet took consolation honors by edging Morella's 41 to 39. A sensational shot by Jim Fair won this one.

Three trophies and many valuable individual awards were given to outstanding players at the conclusion of the final contest.

Bob Pitzer of the tournament winners was selected as the most valuable player in the tournament. Wayne Gray, Third U. P. and Gordon Kerr, Morella's, finished second and third respectively in the balloting.

The Pottery five gained a 15 to 6 lead in the first period of its fray with the Third U. P. of the class A church league. From then on it was just a matter of how big the final score would be.

Pitzer Gets 22
Bob Pitzer left little doubt in the mind of the judges about his place as most valuable player. He played an excellent all-around game, and looped in 11 field goals on all kinds of shots, including several nice follow-through tosses.

Don Reed collected 18 for the losers but he and Gray were both off their normal shooting form.

El Fityet and Morella's staged one of the most exciting frays of the tournament in their consolation playoff.

Fair Wins Game
Morella's led 17-15 at the half. With ten seconds to go the game was tied 39 all. Jim Fair gained control of the ball and held it until two seconds showed on the clock. His well calculated effort in those last two seconds were good for two points, the game, and third place.

Fair shared scoring honors on his team with Confi. Each got 11 as did Dick Hamilton for Morella's. Last night's contests just about completed the 1948-49 basketball season locally except for a few games still in progress on telephone poles and behind garages.

Season Completed
There has been many teams, many tournaments, and lots of good clean sport for many players, stars and would-be greats.

North County Meets Tonight

The North County baseball league managers will have a meeting at Carm's Shop, 112 West Washington street tonight at 8:00 o'clock. There are ten teams seeking franchises. The league will be closed after tonight. All franchise money must be turned in tonight.

The managers and officials will decide on an opening date to night. Howard Rodgers is the president. Ivan Young is the secretary.

Mongiello Flying To Washington

New Castle Nats Manager Will Confer With Ossie Bluege Saturday On Players

Business and playing-manager Billy Mongiello of the New Castle Nats of the Mid-Atlantic league, leaves New Castle at 7:12 a. m., Saturday for Washington, D. C., to confer with Washington Farm Director Ossie Bluege.

Mongiello will board a transport plane at Pittsburgh airport for the flight to Washington at 10:20 o'clock and will arrive in the National Capitol at 11:25.

Cubans On Way
Following a conference with Bluege, the local manager will know what material the Senators are sending to New Castle.

Joe Cambria, the Havana manager called Mongiello last night and said that two Cuban pitchers, a first baseman, second baseman, shortstop and Eligio Barberia, an outfielder, are leaving for New Castle Saturday.

Mongiello will be back in New Castle Monday to greet the Cuban stars who are reporting here.

Coon Chase To Be Held Saturday

Scores of hounds have been entered in the coon chase to be staged by the Lawrence County Coon Hunters association, Saturday, along Frew Mill road. The place for the chase is five miles east of the city. Signs will be posted to show people where the scene of action is.

The trials begin at 10:30 a. m. and entries close at noon.

DEWEY A.C. TO MEET TONIGHT

Members of the Dewey A. C. baseball team will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Jack Adams, 605 Court street. All last year's uniforms must be turned in.

Weather permitting, the Deweys will work out Sunday at 2:30 at Deshon annex.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

HOUNDS will trail coon Saturday in Frew Mill Road district. It is an event of the Lawrence County Coon and Fox Hunters association. Trials begin at 10:30 a. m. No entries will be accepted after noon. Wampun-Ellwood City Rod & Gun club will hold a Lucky Target shoot, Saturday afternoon. Lawrence County Sportsman's association will trap and skeet shoot Sunday afternoon at their Harbor farm. Lee Oma is earning purses and knockouts, his latest victim having been Augustine Cuedes, Palmerton, Pa., whom L-O stopped in the eighth round in Buffalo. Ashley, Pa., loser to Kane in the Class B Floor Titular play, is 2 1/2 miles from Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne county. It is a mining and railroad center and has a population of approximately 5,000. Some good ball players and gridders were reared there. Here & There's Dad erected the second home to be built there, and believe it or not, the first coach put here & there off the football team for 'cussing' during the heat of football conflict. Gene Sheridan, West Sider, migrated here from Ashley, having come here decades ago. Dapper Dan's golf event will be held at the Alcoma club, July 14-17. Vic Ghezzi won the 1948 event. Tom Smith, track and soccer star, who hails from Lancaster, was named the "Athlete of the Year" at Franklin & Marshall college. Butler Tigers of the Mid-Atlantic loop, left today for their Woodstock, Ga., training camp. Great things are expected from Dick Gikerson, 19, of Linville, Va., who won 13 and lost three with Troy, Ala., last year.

Trout season becomes effective one week from today, and everyone who fares forth hopes to catch a Rainbow, Brook or Brownie. Judging from the clamor for reservations, there'll be a jammed house at the Jackie Lyons-Billy Pozza fight Wednesday night, next. Meadowville sportsmen plan to buy and stock 1,000 Pike in French Creek. County Baseball league held a meeting last night. Enthusiasm anent the coming season was fine. President Len Gilbert, City Baseball league, has hopes of having many contributions made to help build a ball field. A local physician fixed up a North Hill lot for Bob Sarko and other youngsters to expend their energy, which is a good deal. Chubby Confer may pass up Beverly Lake, and go farther north to fish this summer. Some net courts apparently are a thing of the past which was not so in the racquet-wielding days of Joe McFate, Bob Lamoree, Paul Dingley et. al. It's a strenuous game. A decade ago Joe Green and others played Badminton in the Carnegie auditorium, now removed. George Barrett took one of the largest Muskie ever caught from French Creek. Charlie Bishop, who passed away recently, was one of the best umpires local leagues ever had. Doggie Conway is a rabid fan in any line of sports. It is doubtful if there is a fan hereabouts who has witnessed more grid games than Tony Sacco. Bernie Hanlon is treasurer of the County Baseball circuit. Reports say Sheriff Frank Coen may resign as County circuit commissioner.

Ashley Enters Formal Protest

ASHLEY, Pa., April 8.—(INS)—Ashley high school today sent to the PIAA an official protest against Kane high school's victory in the Class B Pennsylvania basketball championships.

Ashley contended that it won the game, 44 to 43. The protest declared that a "last-second" field goal by Kane actually was fired after the game was over.

Hear Both Sides
Harold Leberman, PIAA official in charge of the game, had declared Kane the winner of the game by a 45-44 score.

The PIAA board of control will hear testimony from both sides before ruling. The board is due to meet at State College on May 27 in a regular session, but observers believe that a special meeting may be called earlier.

New Castle-Ellwood To Shoot Tonight

The New Castle Rifle club will fire the last league match of the current season this evening at the Army against the Ellwood City Rifle club. A victory in this match will give the local club the championship of the second half. In which event a shoot-off will be staged with the Evans City club, first half winner, to determine the league championship of the year.

No Price Boost At Castle Hills

Contrary to reports, the prices at the Castle Hills golf course have not been raised and are the same as last year, it was announced today by Larry Gramling, manager of the course. The course is in excellent shape for this early in the season.

Peaks And Izzo In Re-Fight Here

Second Match Expected To Prove Hotter Than Their Ellwood City Bout

There'll be no dearth of action when Johnny Izzo, New Castle middleweight, battles Duke Peaks, tall, Youngstown 160-pounder, in a re-fight at the Arena, next Wednesday night. Both are in training. When they milled recently at Ellwood City, one judge voted for Izzo, another cast his ballot for Peaks, and the referee said "draw."

The decisions showed how close the hot battle was, and with each determined to win, there'll be a slugging contest April 13.

The main bout will be eight round affair between Jackie Lyons of Oklahoma City and Billy Pozza of Ellwood City. They are heavyweights.

It will be their first meeting. Recently Pozza outpointed Jackie Thompson of Detroit. Thompson proved the "hottest" opponent Pozza has met to date.

Lyons is a veteran of the pro'ring and a good fight is anticipated.

Matchmaker Tommy Leach is now lining up three other bouts.

Nationals Sign Young Shortstop

Herbert Frank Tufts, Jr., 20, With Lawton Oklahoma Last Year, Signs

Business and playing-manager Billy Mongiello, of the New Castle Nats today announced the acquisition of a new young shortstop—Herbert Frank Tufts, Jr., 20, who played with Lawton, Oklahoma last year in the Sooner State Class C league.

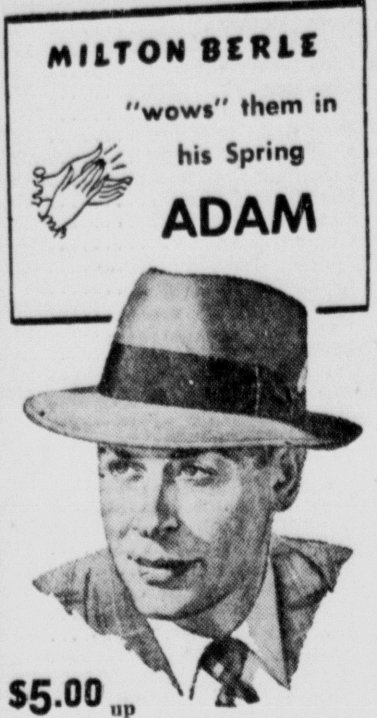

Tufts is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. He is reported to be a fast infielder with a powerful throwing arm. He batted .270 last year for Lawton, his first year in the loop.

Tufts comes here highly recommended and with one year of professional ball back of him, will be a valuable man here. Tufts was picked on the All-Sooner league team last year at shortstop. He played in 120 games.

Tufts will report to Mongiello next Friday with the main squad.
